The Alberta Association of Immigrant Serving Agencies (AAISA) is a provincially and nationally recognized leader in settlement and integration. We operate Canada’s only certification program for professional Settlement Practitioners and represent more than 50 agencies and organizations serving newcomers throughout Alberta.

Our mandate is to strengthen newcomer supports by expanding sector capacity through targeted professional development, partner-driven research, and an influential policy voice—while continually raising the bar for excellence in settlement practice.

Vision & Mission

VALUES

- Integrity: AAISA will approach its work with integrity. It will be professional in its approach, ensure education and continued learning are part of its initiatives, set and follow standards, and be respectful in all its interactions.
- Collaboration: AAISA will follow a collaborative model. It will ensure inclusivity and offer a unified voice for the sector.
- Proactivity: AAISA will be proactive in all undertakings. It will take initiative and have influence in the areas of policy and advocacy and will aim to have impact in its work.
- Accountability: AAISA will ensure that it is accountable. Its responsibility to its members, funders, and the larger settlement sector will be the forefront in what it does.

VISION

An inclusive, welcoming,
and engaged society

MISSION

Facilitate collaboration and leadership within the settlement serving sector

As an organization, AAISA engages with its members and other partners to help increase the level of service to newcomers by providing opportunities for education, networking, and collaboration for newcomer-serving agencies across Alberta.

We are thrilled to announce the return of the AAISA Settlement & Integration Conference, set to take place on October 28th - October 30th, 2025, at the Wyndham Hotel & Conference Center in Edmonton. Our 2025 AAISA Settlement & Integration Conference will bring together professionals, settlement practitioners, and stakeholders for two and a half days of engagement; all aimed at providing front-line settlement workers with the latest industry knowledge and best practices from their peers. This event will see almost 400 attendees gather in-person for three days of debate, discussion, and dialogue on the issues that are impacting settlement and integration.

Event Highlights

2024 AAISA Settlement & Integration Conference

*Premier Best Western Calgary Plaza & Conference Centre |
March 4- March 5, 2024*

Our annual conference is a cornerstone event that brings together a diverse group of professionals, academics, policy makers, and service providers in the field of immigration and settlement. This year, our focus was on vulnerable populations and identity, language and employment, organizational capacity building, resettlement and integration, and experts' conversations.

Why Sponsor?

As a sponsor of the 2025 AAISA Settlement & Integration Conference, you'll connect directly with front-line staff from Alberta's leading newcomer-serving agencies—professionals who are trusted voices within newcomer communities and the wider non-profit sector. These attendees not only engage first-hand with your brand but can also serve as passionate ambassadors, extending your reach and credibility beyond the event itself.

By sponsoring the 2025 AAISA Settlement & Integration Conference, you'll help AAISA convene distinguished partners, government officials, and innovators in a dedicated forum to advance newcomer services. We're eager to cultivate partnerships with organizations that share our commitment to building a more engaged, welcoming, and inclusive society. Our sponsorship packages offer a comprehensive suite of benefits, each designed to align with and support your organization's goals.

Partnering with AAISA for the 2025 Settlement & Integration Conference will:

- Demonstrate your organization's dedication to Alberta's immigrant and newcomer communities.
- Maintain high visibility among conference attendees and the broader AAISA network as an industry leader.
- Foster a dynamic environment where settlement-sector stakeholders can spark conversations, forge partnerships, and explore new opportunities.
- Champion AAISA's mission by supporting collaboration and leadership across the newcomer services sector.
